ABOUT CANTERBURY

With a history dating back to the Roman era, Canterbury is a city brimming with culture. The famous Canterbury Cathedral and the scenic River Stour are just a few of the many must-see attractions in the area. Our Canterbury courses are the ultimate destination for students seeking a bustling UK city with plenty to explore.

OUR SUMMER CENTRE

Our summer courses take place across our year-round schools in Canterbury which are all within very close walking distance of each other. You will be based just a few minutes walk away from the vibrant city centre.

ACCOMMODATION INFORMATION

Staff accommodation will be in one of our school residences. All are within a short walking distance so you'll never be more than 15 minutes away.

All staff will have single rooms with their own en-suite bathroom included. Some residences have a small kitchen area on site but we cannot guarantee this to staff.

Our residences are used by students and group leaders as well as staff.

KEY INFORMATION:

MEALS
Meals are available at our school canteen on New Dover Road. There are also supermarkets nearby if needed.

LAUNDRY FACILITIES
There is a free self-service laundry facility available at each residence. You'll just need to provide your own detergent to use them.

PARKING
