2-Week English Summer Course in Shanghai.

This programme is designed for students who want to improve their English language skills, build confidence in speaking and communication, and develop stronger listening, reading, and writing abilities in an immersive summer learning environment.

It is also ideal for students who are preparing for future overseas study, as it helps them strengthen academic English, presentation skills, teamwork, and intercultural communication, while gaining greater confidence in using English in both classroom and everyday situations.

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

TUITION

Students will take part in English lessons. They will develop stronger listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills in real-life contexts, expand their vocabulary and accuracy in grammar usage, and become more comfortable expressing opinions, presenting ideas, and participating in discussions in English.

ACTIVITIES

We offer a variety of on-site activities, including Chinese cuisine cooking, Chinese dim sum making, and an illustration project themed around Chinese art. Evening sports and team games are also arranged, allowing students to relax and make international friends outside of class.

EXCURSIONS

Excursions allow students to truly get to know Shanghai, one of the most dynamic international cities in the world. We will take students to Zhujiajiao Ancient Water Town, Huaihai Road, The Bund, and Yu Garden, where they can experience both history and modernity. Students will also have the opportunity to go shopping at the Outlets and may choose to join a one-day trip to Shanghai Disneyland.

CERTIFICATE

Awarded for the successful completion of the course.

COURSE BENEFITS & LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the 2-week English Language Summer Camp, students will have improved their confidence and fluency in spoken English through daily communication, interactive lessons, and collaborative activities.
